Opening doors on both sides of the pilothouse provides for ventilation and easy access to generous wrap-around decks. Guests are treated to the comfort of a generous L-settee in the salon, an open galley and inviting dining area. Moving outdoors, an ample, covered aft cockpit is only trumped by the vast flybridge, providing room for a dinghy, helm and navigation station, as well as seating for numerous guests. With power configurations providing for a comfortable 12 to 15-knot cruise, little can impede the progress of the commanding 52 Europa.
